Subject: Call for Nomination for Australia Awards

Sir/Ma'am,

The Office of International Relations takes great pride in announcing that University of Delhi has been identified as one of 15 target educational institutions by the Australian Government for award of scholarships for studies at the Masters Level in Australia. These scholarships called the Australia Awards will be awarded to select students desirous of pursuing Master's level studies in the subject areas identified in the report "An India Economic Strategy to 2035: Navigation from Potential to Delivery" produced in the interest of furthering Indo-Australia relations.

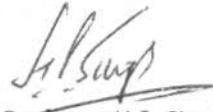

The University is inviting your College to nominate one student each from the third year (Fifth Semester already completed) who is interested in studying further in Australia in any one of the following subject areas:

Education, Tourism, Agri-business, Energy, Infrastructure, Financial Services, Health and Sports.

Please find enclosed the brochure of the Australia Awards for more details. Kindly send us the nomination from your college in hard copy latest by 30th April 5.00 pm. The nomination should include a letter from the Principal indicating the name of the student, course of study in college, mark sheets of all 5 semesters, area of proposed study in Australia with a 200 word write-up by the student on rationale behind choice of subject area.

In case of any query please contact Dr. Yamini Gupt, Dy. Dean, International Relations, University of Delhi (Mob.: 9810374872, Email: yamini.gupt@gmail.com)

With regards,

Professor H.P. Singh
